The Department of Financial and Management Studies invites applications for the post of Lecturer in International Management with a special interest in management and finance relating to the Middle East. The successful candidate will have a strong research record in one or more disciplines related to management or finance and contribute to the Department’s ability to obtain 5* research recognition. The Lecturer will also have a good applied knowledge of aspects of management in the Middle East and its economic or social environment. Expertise in Islamic finance or the energy sector will be an advantage but other specialisms will be considered positively. The principal initial teaching responsibility of the Lecturer will be to contribute creatively to the Masters programme in management relating to the Middle East and to the Department’s generic research and postgraduate teaching in management and finance.

Prospective candidates seeking further information on the Department and the School may contact the Chair of the Department, Professor Laurence Harris, tel: 020 7898 4088, e-mail: lh@soas.ac.uk, www.cefims.ac.uk.

An application form and further particulars may be obtained from the Human Resources Department, School of Oriental and African Studies, Thornhaugh Street, Russell Square, London, WC1H OXG. (Tel: 020 7898 4134, Fax no: 020 7074 5129, e-mail address: humanresources@soas.ac.uk). An on-line application is available at www.soas.ac.uk/humanresources. (E-mail applications will be accepted). CV’s will only be accepted when accompanied by an application form. No agencies.

Closing date: 11 June 2004

SOAS aims to be an equal opportunities employer and would particularly welcome applications from people with disabilities, ethnic minorities and women, as such groups are currently under-represented within its academic workforce.